

Concert Schedule 2005/2006

On the podium The 2005/06 season will set a new benchmark. We embark on our tribute to Mozart and celebrate the brilliance of Beethoven. We bring fresh insight into art songs, the English countryside an Gershwin while focusing a new on our unique maritime magic. We present some of your favourite artists along with newcomers to captivate you. Our imaginative program will astound, from large-scale works with the Nova Scotia Youth Orchestra to Baroque and opera gems.

In between, we dazzle you with pops, a little Blarney, Cinderella, Nutcracker, the Messiah and other special events that reshape the way we see things. Canada has wonderful artists and Symphony Nova Scotia is privileged to perform with them, including many of our own orchestra’s stars. Come by and meet Dinuk Wijeratne, our new resident conductor, who will be on the podium often to add his special touch. Join us and see how Symphony Nova Scotia is music to your ears.

Concert Moods

Next to some of our concert listings, you will see a symbol. These symbols are to enable those unfamiliar with Symphony Nova Scotia to choose the selection that best fits their taste.

★ Stars of Our Orchestra

This selection highlights great classical music with solos by members of Symphony Nova Scotia.

🌸 Light and Lively

Upbeat and entertaining.

♥ Romantic

Music written, arranged, and played to lift the heart and evoke a sigh.

🎵 Choral Masterpieces

If you like to hear your music with words, this is good choice. Think Messiah's Hallelujah Chorus.
